FUNERAL HONORS TO FIRE CHIEF ARE SET FOR TOMORROW

and Vicinity-Chief Wagner's Visit.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., APRIL 17. The funeral of George W. Pettey, the aged chief of the Alexandria fire department, will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. Christopher Gill, 118 South Lee street, and will be conducted by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St Paul's Episcopal Church.

The body will be borne to the cemetery upon the old reel of the Reliance Fire Engine Company, and will be drawn by a number of members of the fire department. All the fire company's flags were placed at half-mast yesterday, and will be continued so for a period of thirty days in honor of the dead chief. During the progress of the funeral the bell of each company will be tolled. The chief's horse and cart, led by a groom, will precede the funeral cortege, and his helmet and uniform will be placed upon the seat.

Mark E. Price, jr., is at present the acting chief, until the city council shall designate Pettey's successor, which will probably be done at the next meeting, April 25. Among those prominently mentioned for the place is Robert Gronau, but it is not known whether or not he will accept the position, if appointed.

Fire Chief Wagner, of Washington, esterday viewed the body, and stated that he would attend the funeral, accompanied by a squad of Washington firemen. He paid high tribute to the worth of the dead chief, who ... point of length of active service ; anked as one of the highest in the country.

With festoons of colored lights and gayly decorated booths, the Elks are ready to open their spring festival to-day. Among the features is the Ger-man village, where refreshments will be served, the rathskeller having been so converted. It is expected that sepatate nights will be arranged upon which the different local fraternal organiza-tions and societies will attend in a body.

The following cases were disposed of in police court this morning: William Miller, colored, charged with stealing feed from the premises of W. A. Smoot & Co., ninety days: William Lyles, fast driving, forfelted $5; Mark Hancock, assaulting and beating Mary Hancock, forfeited $5; Benjamin Twety, disorderly conduct, forfeited $5; Charles Shepherd, disorderly conduct, fined $5; William Donovan, disorderly conduct at Union Station, forfeited $5; George Jones, using abusive language toward Fannie Green, dismissed Fannie Green, dismissed.
